

TEXAS VETERANS ON MARCH FOILED IN ROBBERY ATTEMPT, SUICIDES

BIG SPRING MAN COMMITTS SUICIDE AS FACES ARREST

HAD ATTEMPTED TO ROB
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF STANTON EARLIER

BIG SPRING, June 2.—(AP)—Rather than submit to arrest for an attempted robbery of the First National Bank of Stanton today, Clinton Hair, 30, shot and killed himself.

His death climaxed a terrible automobile chase in which he vainly tried to escape pursuing officers. As the car in which he rode came to a halt, he whipped out an automatic pistol and fired six times, one bullet penetrating his head.

He apparently made no effort to shoot at the car load of officers, who stopped on his left side. Three of his bullets tore through the top of his car and the two other wild shots punctured the right door as he topped over, dead.

Checking back on Hair's venture it was found he had rented an automobile at Big Spring, his home town, about 6:30 o'clock this morning. An hour later he walked into the bank at Stanton, 20 miles to the west.

John B. Lewis, assistant cashier, and George Davis, a customer, were the only persons in the building. Hair asked Lewis when Jim Tom, the cashier, would be down. Lewis said he told him "pretty soon."

Lewis then went into the cage to get some checks. He said Hair walked to the cage window, drew a pistol and demanded that the vault be opened. Lewis told him it had a time lock and he couldn't open it that early.

Then Ed Woodward, who occupies the rear end of the bank building, who was unaware of what was going on, Hair ordered him to raise his hands.

Taking advantage of this diversion of Hair's attention, Lewis

NATION'S BUSINESS LEADERS GATHER FOR HIGH TAX PROTEST

GROWTH OF TAX BURDEN
TO BE PLACED BEFORE
CONGRESS AND PEOPLE

CHICAGO, June 2.—(AP)—Organized American business answered the call of the Chicago Association of Commerce today for a "honest balance of the budget" and reductions in taxes and government expenditures.

Tomorrow the 500 representatives of business and commercial groups will adopt a declaration of policy before Congress finally passes on the next tax bill.

George Rosseter, president of the Chicago association and chairman of the tax conference, said: "It does not take much of a financier or statesman to balance a budget if all he attempts to do is to increase rates or tap new sources of revenue, thus adding additional burden."

The taxing duties of congress were described by Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor of the Chicago Tribune, as "the spectacle of 600 panic stricken men trying to do the impossible. They realize that the money spent year after year cannot be raised from the people this year. They are in the grip of a monstrous political machine striving to exact the last drop of blood."

Declaring that taxation was "taking away the earning power of property," Colonel McCormick said:

"The vast debts piled up over all the nation by tax spending bodies can never be paid unless the government of government can be brought to the plane where expenditures meet earnings."

The viewpoint of eastern industrial and business men was expressed by Stanley S. Holmes, president of the Newark, N. J., Chamber of Commerce.

"It's about time," Holmes said, "that industry organized to tell congress what it wanted and then saw to it that it got it. We called home last week all our representatives in congress and emphatically outlined our wishes."

CHICAGO, June 2.—(AP)—Two thousand leaders in commerce, finance and agriculture from 21 states gathered here today to raise a united voice in protest against high local, state and federal taxes.

One of the chief aims of the assembly was passage of a reso-

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—An administration relief program was put before congress today while two cabinet members were assailing the public works phases of democratic measures before senate and house committees.

Representative Hawley (Rd, Ore.) introduced the administration measures which he said were drafted along the lines suggested by the president in his speech to the senate a few days ago.

At about the same time, the program was being explained to the senate banking committee by Secretary Mills during his attack upon the proposed bond issue for public works carried by the democratic program.

The administration program called for $300,000,000 for relief loans to states and $1,500,000,000 more borrowing power for the reconstruction corporation for loans on self liquidating projects.

The treasury head said the Democratic proposal for a bond issue would "unbalance" the budget.

Both he and Secretary Hurley, who was appearing at the same time before the house ways and means committee in opposition to a bond issue for public works, said the huge expenditures involved would give comparatively little aid to unemployment.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—In a double-barreled administration attack on the public works sections of democratic relief measures, Secretaries Hurley and Mills told congressional committees today the huge expenditures proposed would give comparatively little employment.

Mills piled this objection upon the contention that issuance of bonds to carry out such projects would "break down a sound financial relief."

Body of Suicide Is Identified as Wealthy Youth

NEW ORLEANS, June 2.—(AP)—The body of a young man who shot and killed himself last week has been identified by a relative as that of William W. Farish, Jr., wealthy New Yorker who disappeared from his ranch at Las Cruces, N. M., two weeks ago.

Identification was established last night by Mrs. Hal Lemon of Kansas City, an aunt, who came here at the request of Farish's parents.

Farish for some time had been receiving dental treatment at a local hospital. He was believed to have become temporarily deranged due to intense pain from chronic toothache.

Millionaire Bans Luxuries For Self, Feeds Hundreds Chicago School Children

CHICAGO, June 2.—(AP)—A millionaire who denies himself the luxuries of life but who has furnished more than $100,000 for the feeding of hundreds of poor Chicago school children protested today that his philanthropy was "nothing."

William E. Turner, 78-year-old bachelor who wears inexpensive, old-fashioned clothes, rides in a 1924 model automobile and takes a day coach when he goes to his winter home in Foley, Ala., because he "can't afford" a Pullman, is the philanthropist.

"I'm not doing anything," he said. "I just told C. Edgar Johnson, who would furnish the money. He's really handling the whole thing."

Johnson, who is assistant cashier of the First Union Trust and Savings Bank, revealed that Mr. Turner had been feeding hundreds of pupils in eight North Side elementary schools since last winter, and that some of the children were actually starving.

The mothers of the children come to school early each school day to do the cooking.

Mr. Turner appeared to be embarrassed when asked about his generosity.

"I guess I don't keep up with the news so very well," he said. "I didn't know the kids were so badly off until I heard neighbors say that some of the school children in our district were actually starving. So I told Mr. Johnson to arrange to help them."

Plea to Hoover Frees Dad

The Feagan children, Irene, 11; Bernice, 14, and Clifford, 10, think President Hoover is the greatest man in the world. Their father, Charles R. Feagan, of Detroit, was held in jail there pending trial on a Federal charge of transporting a stolen automobile from Missouri to his home city. The youngsters made the trip from Detroit to Washington by bus to see the President and, as a result, Feagan was released on District Attorney Frederick's personal bond pending investigation of the charge. The children are shown leaving the White House after seeing the President.

MAN RELEASED ON APPEAL TO HOOVER IN TROUBLE AGAIN

PERSONAL PLEA OF CHILDREN GAIN FREEDOM FOR FATHER

DETROIT, June 2.—(AP)—Charles R. Feagan, whose three children recently obtained his release from jail here by appealing personally to President Hoover, faced more trouble today.

Advised that Minneapolis police have asked his arrest on a charge of embezzlement, Feagan said he could not understand the basis of the charge and added that he isn't worried about it.

The Minneapolis complaint, issued in 1931, charges he ordered several bodies sent to his home and then left without paying for them.

"I lived in Minneapolis from 1929 until January, 1931, when I came to Detroit," he said. "But any radios I had there I paid for."

Feagan has not been arrested on the Minneapolis report because it would be impossible to remove him from his home as long as federal authorities have jurisdiction over him. Federal officers arrested him April 27 on a charge of driving a stolen automobile from Missouri to Michigan. Previously he had been held by state authorities on an extradition request covering the same charge.

NEW YORK, June 2.—(AP)—Speedy preparation of removal charges against Mayor James J. Walker was in prospect today.

Samuel Seabury's investigation of the mayor's office, in which 14 months of tolls inquiry reached a climax in a spectacular verbal duel between Seabury and the mayor, wound up late yesterday. Newspapers predicted that ouster charges would be laid before Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt soon.

Because Governor Roosevelt is a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination and Mayor Walker is an adherent of Tammany Hall, the possible effects of the Walker case on the national political picture have come more and more to the fore.

Very different from the flaming battle between the mayor and Seabury was the set-to yesterday between the investigator and Dr. William H. Walker, the mayor's brother. A stout man who sat uncomfortably in the witness chair and bit his eye-glasses until they broke in two. Dr. Walker heard Seabury produce evidence to show his bank deposits in the last four years were $431,258.

To a question suggesting possible graft he entered a denial. He acknowledged he split money with a group of doctors who re-

YOUTH ACQUITTED OF MURDER CHARGE BY CONROE JURY

DURRELL KENDALL FREED
ON FIRST BALLOT DEATH
TRAVELING SHOWMAN

CONROE, June 2.—(AP)—Durrell Kendall of Mississippi was acquitted by a jury here today of the murder of L. H. Brownlee, head of a small time itinerant minstrel show.

The verdict was returned on the first ballot.

Kendall, motion picture projectionist for the show, was accused of slaying both Brownlee and Martha Smith but was tried specifically for the murder of Brownlee.

The bodies were discovered in the show tent at New Caney, Texas, Dec. 10 last, several days, presumably, after the killings, through the screams of a hungry parrot which led New Caney residents to go into the tent and investigate.

Special Prosecutor Z. L. Foreman yesterday brought a parrot into a room adjoining the courtroom and late in the day sought to have the bird brought into the courtroom itself. District Judge S. A. McCall refused permission. At the time, Foreman would not say whether it was the bird that saw the killings. When the trial was over today, however, he admitted it was not the same.

"I am mighty glad it came out that way," Kendall said after the verdict. "I think I got justice."

The prosecution made no announcement as to what disposition would be made of the case involving the slaying of Martha Smith.

The jury's refusal to consider long the circumstantial case in the Brownlee case, however, undoubtedly will be considered carefully before any attempt is made to bring Kendall to trial again.

Eleven Months Federal Deficit Running High

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—The government completed 11 months of the 1932 fiscal year with a deficit of $2,684,934,468. The treasury's month-end statement, made public today, showed collections from all sources amounted to $1,770,269,398 while expenditures had mounted to $4,455,219,841.

Receipts for the 11 months last year were $2,684,438,388, while expenditures were $3,729,348,486.

The chief contributor to the decline was income tax collections which this year amounted to $895,978,640, compared with $1,564,628,881 a year ago.

The postal deficiency amounted to $170,018,810 against $119,017,315 a year ago and the Reconstruction corporation required $500,000,000 to start operations.

ALLEGED RUSSIAN ATTEMPT TO LAND ARMS IN IRELAND THWARTED BY BRITISH NAVY

PRORATION ATTACK
ARGUMENT IS ENDED;
DECISION FAR AWAY

HOUSTON, June 2.—(AP)—The latest and broadest attack on proration in the East Texas oil field was today thwarted by the decision of a three-judge court that heard the case was at least a month away.

Hearing on a consolidated case brought by a number of oil operators to test the validity of the production restriction in the field was completed late yesterday.

The court then allowed counsel for each side 15 days, or a total of 30 days, to file supplemental briefs.

The decision will be returned at Tyler, where the litigation originated.

It was the second time the same court had sat in judgment on the matter, a hearing some months ago having resulted in a decision halting Governor R. S. Sterling's martial law administration of proration.

Crowded Days

Miss Marjorie Goodman, Chicago heiress, is to have a busy month in June. In that month she will become of age, she will become wealthy in her own name, and she will be presented at the Court of St. James. Miss Goodman is the daughter of the late Kenneth Sawyer Goodman of Chicago.

The first demonstration was given in the Houston veterans' hall, they passed through Longview. A large orderly procession of veterans of that area marched to the railway station to greet the travelers. Such placards as "Honor or Bust" and "Our Babies Shall Not Starve" appeared.

The Waco ex-service commander was joined in his criticism by the commander of the Waco post of the American Legion, Billy Burnett, commander of the Brownsville American Legion Post. They made it clear, however, that they are in favor of bonus legislation through other means.

A group of marchers traveling by automobile, reached Texarkana on their way to Washington.

PREDICTING EARLY AGREEMENT ON TAX BILL BY CONFEREES

RAINEY AND SMOOT FOR HOUSE AND SENATE ARE OPTIMISTIC THURSDAY

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—Prediction of an agreement on the revenue bill between house and senate conferees by tonight was made late today by Chairman Smoot of the conferees as the conference was resumed.

Assurance was given at the same time by Representative Rainey, of Illinois, house democratic leader and a member of the conferees, that the budget would be balanced.

"You may say that for sure," said Rainey, stepping from the meeting room for a moment.

This declaration from the house leadership gave firm assurance to the nation that the revised estimates submitted Tuesday by President Hoover calling for a $280,000,000 increase in taxes above the previous mark asked by the administration would be met.

WAR MOTHERS MEET
FORT WORTH, June 2.—(AP)—Reports at the morning session of the Texas State Chapter of American War Mothers here today indicated progress made during the past year. Mrs. Albert Honig, Dallas, state president, said:

"There were already 1500 of the veterans in Washington, D. C., having received word that hundreds more were either en route or about to start authorities were beginning to worry about how they were to be fed."

Dallas reported veterans were gathering all over the state for a march to Washington and at Fort Worth last night a group clambered aboard an eastbound train. Most of them, it was believed, were ex-soldiers.

Veterans from Chicago and Detroit were expected to join with Ohioans today at Toledo and more Chicagoans were traveling through Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania railroad furnishing them transportation.

Between 200 and 250 were advancing northward from Louisiana and Florida, 200 expected to leave Johnson City, Tenn., late today, and 200 more planned to start from South Carolina Saturday. Another large group expected to leave Oklahoma today, between 300 and 500 started from Camden, N. J., yesterday, and in New York a group was being recruited to start June 4.

Tented City Being

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—A tented city is being arranged to house the thousands of World War veterans marching on Washington to demand immediate cash payment of their bonus.

Press and private reports reaching Brigadier General Glassford, superintendent of police, indicated today that more than 5000 now are en route or about to start. They are coming from the four corners of the nation.

Glassford said the new arrivals would be taken to Anacostia Park, some distance from the capitol, and housed in tents.

WORLD WAR VETERANS
PLAN QUICK TREK CAPITAL TO BACK CASH BONUS

(By Associated Press) Although not as great as some leaders had predicted, the on-to-Washington movement of Texas veterans of the World War in the interest of bonus legislation appeared to be gathering momentum, reports from various sections indicated today.

The reports also brought from several sources outspoken opposition to the movement, the commander of the Waco veterans of foreign wars describing such a step, equivalent to attempted "mob law."

The largest contingent so far actually en route to Washington was reported to have left Houston today aboard freight trains. It was said to number more than 200.

Another group, the exact number unknown but claimed to have numbered about 75, left Fort Worth in a like manner last night. Another group left Amarillo in two automobiles.

At El Paso, leaders said 300 would entrain there at noon today. Another contingent was scheduled to leave San Antonio tomorrow. It was to be joined by others along the route.

The first demonstration was given in the Houston veterans' hall, they passed through Longview. A large orderly procession of veterans of that area marched to the railway station to greet the travelers. Such placards as "Honor or Bust" and "Our Babies Shall Not Starve" appeared.

MANY VARIETIES OF CACTUS ASSEMBLED FRED ALLISON HOME

MOST COMPLETE PRIVATE COLLECTION IN THIS SECTION OF STATE

With an ambition to secure one of the most complete private collections of "cactus" or old-fashioned cactus, Fred M. Allison, Corsicana automobile dealer, garage owner and drilling contractor, has been engaged for several months in seeking out typical plants and transplanting them to a plot on the grounds of his home on North Beaton street.

More than a hundred varieties are included in the present collection, and Mr. Allison is planning an expansion soon to secure additional specimens for his exhibit, which includes some rare and prize members of the cactus family. The plants have been collected far from Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma, Mexico, South America, and the West Indies, but only a few of the outstanding specimens have been secured from each of the localities.

Discussing his efforts to transplant the cactus, Mr. Allison said that the old idea that a cactus plant could just be thrown out into some dirt and then neglected and it would thrive had been thoroughly exploded as far as he was concerned. Special soil preparations are necessary for the plants, with care being taken that not too much native soil is allowed to mix in with sand which the plants prefer.

Attractive Setting. The local collector's cactus beds are located in two huge stone boxes on either side of the entrance to the garage, and in a plot in the parkway north of the drive. The cactus beds are surrounded with a circle of stones collected from various parts of Oklahoma, Texas and Mexico.

The collection includes a number of the fishhook or pin-cushion varieties, each with some individual trait that is a characteristic feature, some with a queer type of spear cluster, others with variegated blooms. Several varieties of "cactus heads" are also included, deriving their names from the queer growth on their summits which resembles closely the fezz, formerly national headgear of Turkey. The lower part of the plant appears similar to the fishhook or pin-cushion varieties. Each of the varieties is the possessor of a long technical Latin name but a majority of collector's prize plants are named after the names of the Indians and early pioneer citizens.

One of the most prominent specimens is an Arizona desert giant which has a height of some four feet and a diameter of about two inches. According to desert naturalists, many lives have been saved by travelers cutting the top from one of the plants and drinking the water which is held within the interior while the heads of others have died of thirst within reaching distance of the cactus because they were unfamiliar with the secret. The desert giant is reputed to be one of the largest in the state and also one of the largest to have been successfully transplanted.

Turk's Head. The turk's head cacti are found principally in the West Indies and the species having a white capitulum or cap have been recently discovered and classified, while the red-capped plants are slightly more prevalent. Since the acquisition of the white-capped plant by Mr. Allison has been the subject of the technical name assigned to the species is the intarsia antoni by a world-famous authority. Only eight of these plants are known to exist at present.

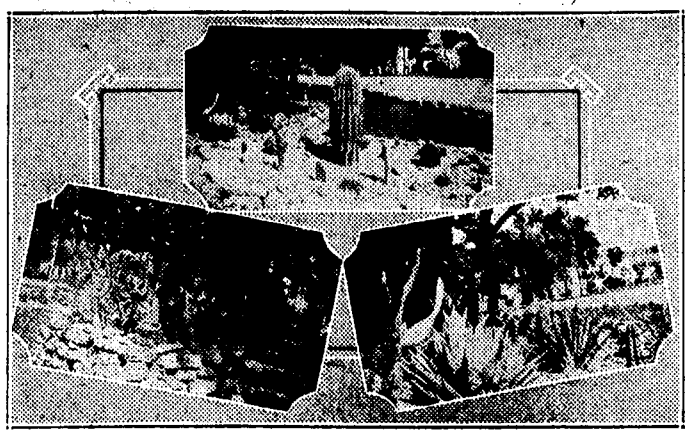

Century plant, old-fashioned cactus, tongue, prickly pear, pineapple cactus are among the frequently seen varieties that appear in the beds.

Other interesting plants include the maguay from which the natives of Mexico make mesal, and sotol from which come "soto" or "boyati," sometimes erroneously labeled mesal but which is considerably stronger and more violent in reaction to the liquor derived from the maguay.

Resembles Sweet Potato. Perhaps the most noticeable specimen in the entire group is the peyote as it is familiarly known. The plant has been described as resembling a sweet potato with a green marshmallow top, and is the possessor of a long legendary history. Geologically it is said to be the only floral survivor of the time when the entire state was covered by the Comanchean sea in the Lower Cretaceous period of geological time.

This plant is sacred to the Yaquis, Tarahumaras, Apaches, Comanches, and Kickapoes, and while several of the tribes are almost unknown to each other it is significant that they will make long journeys to secure a supply of the plant and that it is used on a celebration held on the identical days with the other tribes.

NATIVE SOUTHWEST PLANTS

Three views of the cactus collection of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Allison adjoining their home on North Beaton street, which includes more than a hundred varieties, and which the owners hope to make one of the most complete private beds in Texas.

In the top picture the outstanding specimen is the Arizona Desert Giant, while to the immediate right is the white-capped turk's head of intarsia antoni, recently discovered West Indian variety. Several other better known varieties are shown, while to the extreme left of the picture is shown the main cactus bed growing in the shade of a cedar tree.

THREE LIVES LOST IN COLORADO RIVER RAMPAGE WEDNESDAY

BLYTHER, Calif., June 1.—(P)—Swollen to the highest stage since 1921, the Colorado river was on a rampage today at least three persons, all negroes, have been drowned, seven other negroes were missing and more than 200 acres of rich farm land threatened with inundation as the flood waters poured through a break in a levee six miles northeast of here.

Every available man has been sent from Blythe to the scene of the levee break. More than 200 worked frantically today to patch the break and save the farm lands on which approximately 2,500 persons reside.

The waters broke through the levee at Brown's Heading at 7 p. m. last night. Within three hours a gap approximately 20 feet in width had been opened.

The levee is 12 feet high and normally is about a mile from the bank of the river. The Colorado now is several miles wide. Waters pouring through the levee break being pounded in an area which formerly was levee land, a basin being formed by a second line of levees which threatened to give way.

Unless the hole in the first line of levee is soon patched, the water will overflow, causing the rich farm land to be flooded.

TITLE TO VALUABLE OIL LANDS SETTLED BY SUPREME COURT

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF BILL INVOLVING MANY MILLIONS IS FULLY SUSTAINED

AUSTIN, June 1.—(P)—The Small bill vesting title to river beds in original owners of lands traversed by them was held constitutional and fully sustained by the Texas Supreme Court today.

The case, in which constitutionality of the Small bill was involved was styled State of Texas vs. C. W. Bradford et al. There were approximately six hundred defendants, claimants under the bill to land a prickly pear are the prominent figures in the box.

The bill sponsors, by Senator Clint C. Small of Amarillo and passed over the veto of Governor Dan Moody during his administration, validates title to land in the stream-beds where the surveys stream channels that are not navigable but which are more than thirty feet wide.

The original statute classed the latter as navigable and forbade surveys having the effect of placing title to the river beds in the hands of the original owners of the land.

Much of the most valuable river bed holdings affected are in the north fork of the Red River for a distance of about seventy-five miles through Gray and Wheeler counties.

The suit was brought by the state to try title to the bed of the river, alleged to have been appropriated to the public school fund. As ground for the recovery, the state alleged the river was a statutory navigable stream.

Caswell and Redd, two of the defendants, asserted they had an interest in the land under the title to a statement issued here today.

The decision held that river beds were the property of the state at large and not the school fund, having the effect of placing revenue from river beds to the credit of the state general revenue fund. It previously had been generally believed that revenue from development of the Sabine river in the East Texas oil field would accrue to the credit of the permanent school fund.

J. H. Walker, commissioner of the general land office, said after reviewing the court's decision in the word "large" that it was plain the tribunal had held river beds were the property of the state at large and that under that holding, the general revenue fund would obtain returns from the Sabine river leasing.

J. H. Sharp, member of the commission of appeals who wrote the opinion, which was adopted by the supreme court proper, said it was the court's decision that river beds belonged to the state at large. He said that was the first time such construction had been placed on the statutes.

The state had contended the bed of the North Fork had never been legally sold or conveyed and was not subject to be sold. The state also contended the small bill had no application because the suit was pending at the time the bill was passed and that if the act should be held applicable it was unconstitutional.

The supreme court held that the caption and the language and terms of the act provided for the validation of titles and that it clearly was the intention to cure pre-existing defects in the title to river beds. The opinion denied the state's contention that the Small bill was not retrospective and that its purpose was to validate titles to lands whose surveys have been heretofore made.

The bill had the effect of validating the titles even though a suit was pending for its recovery. Unquestionably the cloud cast against the titles to the upland by reason of the survey lines crossing the stream has been removed by the passage of the Small bill, the court stated.

After reviewing the history of land legislation since 1900, the court stated the "legislature has repeatedly passed legislation with respect to beds and channels of navigable streams which is consistent with the intention of the legislature to set apart and grant to the permanent school fund beds and channels of navigable streams."

NO DANGER OF WAR BETWEEN JAPAN AND RUSSIA SAYS SAITO

CONCENTRATION OF SOVIET TROOPS HELD AS SOURCE OF WAR RUMORS

By GLENN BABE,
Associated Press Staff Correspondent

(Copyright 1933, By Associated Press.)
TOKYO, June 2.—(AP)—Viscount Mino, Japan's premier, asserted today in a written statement that there is absolutely no danger of war between his country and Soviet Russia.

The Japanese government, he stated positively, has no danger of war with the Soviet Union exists," he said. "The attitude of the soviet government respecting affairs in Manchuria has been perfectly correct, and we only wish that the Soviet government might see a way to repose such a further measure of confidence in Japan's sincerity as would enable the soviet union to discontinue its concentration of troops in the Far East."

"This concentration, the Japanese government believes is the real source of recent unfounded rumors of dissension between our two countries."

At the same time, it is feared that the effect of concluding a non-aggression treaty with the soviet union would be to weaken the force of the Kellogg-Briand pact and to cast a shadow on Japan's relations with every other state with which no non-aggression treaty existed. It would amount to setting up those special intimacies between nations which so often have been depreciated. x x x

"The Japanese government adheres firmly to the principle of the open door with equal opportunity for all nations in Manchuria. No customs union or economic federation between Japan and Manchuria is even contemplated."

"Japan's recognition of Man-choukuo must depend upon the usual conditions for recognition of a new state, including proven capacity to maintain itself as such. Clearly Japan's propensity to vital interests in Manchuria makes this a matter upon which it is peculiarly proper for Japan to come to a decision."

"Annexation of Manchuria certainly is not desired nor does Japan wish to control in any illegitimate way the policy of Manchoukuo authorities. She desires only to obtain from their satisfaction of her rights and interests in the regions under their control. x x x"

Japanese Troops Occupied Hailan

HARBIN, Manchuria, June 2.—
(AP)—General Teizo Hiraoka's
28th brigade of the fourteenth Japanese division occupied Hailan, Manchuria, last night after smashing the opposition of Chinese Japanese troops.

The occupation of Hailan finally cleared the important Hailan-Ha-lun railway line, which the Chinese have blocked for some time.
A portion of the Japanese General Hiramatsu's twenty-seventh brigade, along with the fourteenth division, began an attack on the walled city of Anta on the western portion of the Chinese Eastern railway. Anta was being defended by a band of 2,000 Chinese followers of Gen. Li Hai-Tsing.

Bonus Marchers

here. More than 600 were billeted in two vacant buildings.
Efforts to learn how the movement started have been unsuccessful. Glasford said those now under way have been attracted by the publicity of free housing and the chance of a free ride.

Walter W. Waters, "commander-in-chief" of those now here, said the idea originated with a group in Oregon. He emphatically stated that communists or the Workers Ex-Service Men's league, an affiliate of the communist organization, inspired it.

Many Communists Present
On the other hand, police say 200 known communists are in the city. One—Emanuel Levin—said the Ex-Service Men's league claims credit for starting the movement in 30 strategic points.
The league is planning a mass demonstration here June 8.
Glasford has about $400 to feed the campers, now being fed at a cost of six cents a day each.
They get two meals. The police superintendent is expected to return here after a mass demonstration committee yesterday and asked for a federal appropriation of $75,000.

A midnight show will be given in a local theater tonight to raise additional funds.
When funds are exhausted, Glasford threatens to evacuate the veterans within 48 hours. As long as food is available they probably will be permitted to remain until congress adjourns.
Picked leaders of the veterans now are lobbying in congress for the bonus.

Move on Washington
ATLANTA, June 2.—(AP)—Traveling in a flag-draped roadster and two trucks, the van guard of the "bonus army" of Southern World War veterans en route to Washington passed through Atlanta today and pitched camp on the city to await comrades from Louisiana.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 2.—(AP)— World war veterans from Louisiana and Florida advanced toward Washington today to press for cash bonus settlements while comrades elsewhere in the south discussed joining the financial offensive.

The Louisiana veterans who left New Orleans last week-end and have advanced into Alabama by county and national guard trucks camped last night at Opelika with a hope of marching through about a part of Georgia today.
Between 150 and 200 are with the party.

ami, Fla., by automobile yesterday, arrived in the rain at night. Transportation was given to

NEFF TO DELIVER COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS STATE WOMEN'S COLLEGE

Pat M. Neff, U. S. Senator from Texas, will deliver the commencement address at the State Women's College for Women (C.W.) at Denton, Texas, today.

DENTON, June 2.—(Spl.)—In one of the first public appearances of Pat M. Neff after his resignation from the office of state railway commissioner, will be made when he delivers the commencement address at the twenty-ninth annual graduation exercise on Monday, June 4, at Texas State College for Women (C.W.).
Bishop John M. Moore, of Dallas, will be in charge of the debate service Sunday morning, June 3. The annual homecoming program from June 4-6 will feature a Sweetheart banquet and the usual social calendar honoring graduates and ex-students.
There are 217 candidates for degrees which is the largest number in the history of the college. Last June degrees were conferred on 188 candidates. The first graduating class included 1 student whose degree was presented in the spring of 1904.
In September 1903, the "Texas
Industrial Institute and College for the Education of White Girls of the State" was established with 186 students in attendance. It was planned that here girls should obtain a knowledge of music, art, science, home economics, practical housekeeping, care and culture of children, trained nursing, with such other practical industries as from time to time may be suggested by experience or tend to promote the general object of said institute and college, to wit: Fitting and preparing the girls for the practical industries of the age.

From a lone building valued at $50,000 the college plant has grown until it is now valued at more than two million dollars. As the methods of modern education have changed, so has changed the system of the college, until it is now recognized as one of the foremost women's colleges in the world offering both graduate and undergraduate work in twenty-three different fields.
The student enrollment for 1931-32 exceeded 1,400 students; more than nine times the number of the enrollment thirty years ago.

Relief

cial policy pursued since the beginning of the government and open "a breach which I am fearful will be only too promptly widened."
He said that of the $500,000,000 proposed by senate democrats for public works $250,000,000 would give work to only 63,943 men.
The secretary of the treasury appeared before the senate banking committee on the relief program sponsored by democrats in the senate, while the secretary of war was before the house ways and means committee on the plan to put forward by Speaker Garner.
Hurley contended that river and harbor work was chiefly mechanical. Discussing different projects totaling $154,399,750 under the bill, he said that expenditure would furnished jobs to only 63,442 men.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)— Aides of President Hoover repeatedly today to repeat within the capitol the "pork barrel" charge which their chief levelled at the huge Garner relieve program.
Secretary Mills and Secretary Hurley were invited before the ways and means committee of the house to say their say. Already both have been vigorous in denouncing the billion dollar list of post office highway and relief projects through which,
in part, the democratic speaker proposes to multiply employment.
Unless the committee has been badly misled, the administration's musing on the bill today was little more than opportunity to put the President's views in the record, for a majority on the group apparently was determined to approve the speaker's plan. It totals $2,309,000,000.

A certain amount of revision on the bill is to be done by the committee but the plan already formulated is for a report to the house this week with a try for passage next month under the so-called "gag-rule." This permits less than an hour of debate and no amendments but requires a two-thirds majority for passage.

Threaten to Take Train
TOLEDO, O., June 2.—(AP)—If the New York Central Railroad fails to provide 10 gondolas and a box car for transportation to Cleveland, 800 marchers of the go out along the tracks and com-mandeer a freight train for their

Texas Veterans

A parade in honor of Representative Wright Patman, father of the bonus bill, was planned. Texarkana is Patman's home town.

(By Associated Press)
From all sections of the state today came reports of World war veterans gathering for a "march" on Washington to demand of congress speedy payment of veterans compensation certificates.

It was not a march in fact, for former service men indicated through leaders they would travel by automobile, trucks and freight trains. By any and every means they sought transportation which would place them in the national capital quickly to back congressmen who advocated immediate cash payment of the soldiers' bonus.

In Fort Worth last night, the veterans coupled action with words by boarding an east-bound freight train, in what numbers was not definitely established. Special railway officers forced F. R. Compton, a leader, and 11 comrades to leave the train, as well as some 50 "hoboes," but it was reported many of the three-score veterans who had scrambled on the train before the officers arrived still held places when the train left town.

A small detachment of former service men had left Fort Worth in two automobiles for Texarkana prior to departure of the train, intending to arrange for breakfast at the tri-state junction point.
Leaders said they expected reinforcements at Texarkana.
About 125 veterans gathered at San Antonio and leaders said delegations would join them later from Victoria, Kerrville, Corpus Christi, Houston, Brownsville, Mission, La-red, Eagle Pass, El Paso, Kin-sville, Waco, Marshall and Austin.
A big concentration was planned in Dallas tomorrow. The San Antonio group arranged to leave at 5 a. m. tomorrow.

From a mammoth parade and demonstration would be held at Paris, Tex., in honor of Congressman Wright Patman of Texarkana, champion of immediate cash payment of the bonus certificates.
Patman was born in Paris.

Reports from El Paso said 200 men would entrain there at noon, moving east by way of Vaughn,
N. M., Amarillo, Tex., and Kansas City, where a great train during the day. A great train during the day from the Pacific coast was planned. Leaders said only bona fide veterans would be allowed to join the demonstration.
A railway company there refused ed all assistance in getting the bonus champions out of the city.

In Dallas, leaders of the on-to-Washington movement appealed for trucks to aid the "marchers" travel east. They also asked for food and cash to aid the veteran relief organization undertaking to provide food.

Local Veterans Not Planning to March

No organized group of ex-soldier men from Corsicana or the county is planning to join the "Text Bonus Expedition" to Washington, A. L. Springfield of the Johnson-Wiggins Post, No. 22, American Legion, stated this morning. "The majority of the local ex-soldiers believe that the adjusted compensation certificates will be paid and that a march to the capitol will not be necessary," he declared.

The organized march from Texas will begin at sunrise in San Antonio tomorrow, and according to Mr. Springfield, some of the groups are expected to pass through Corsicana on freight trains during the day. "I believe that a large demonstration from here would go to Washington," Mr. Springfield said, "if they thought their presence would effect the payment of the bonus."

Waco Commander Calls It Mob Law

WACO, June 2.—(AP)—J. W. Wray, commander of the Waco organization of Veterans of Foreign Wars, today described the proposed bonus march to Washington as "mob law."
He expressed the belief that such a march violates the provision of the constitution of the V.
F. W., which says members shall uphold the government of the United States.
Waco veterans favor immediate cash payment in full of adjusted compensation certificates but are opposed to using this method of attaining their end.

"We will give no aid or comfort to marchers, if and when they pass through Waco," he asserted.
"First, because we haven't any money and second, because I don't think they will need help so early."

Commander George O. Jones of the Waco American Legion Post, who refused to accept a collected cash payment, but not the contemplated march to Washington.
Adjutant John Gobie of the Waco chapter of Disabled American Veterans said his organization approved payment of the bonus, but was opposed to the march.

Bonus marchers had announced their intention of passing through Waco tomorrow or Saturday enroute from San Antonio and other points to Washington.

Two Hundred from Houston.
HOUSTON, June 2.—(AP)—More than 200 Houston veterans were en route to Washington today with the announced intention of staying in the capital city "until the soldier bonus is paid."

The men, most of them clad in overalls and wrinkled suits of clothes, were led by J. J. Dav-ley, commander of the United Veterans, as they left the city on freight trains. The route was kept secret.

Brownsville Commander Opposed
BROWNSVILLE, June 2.—(AP)— Billy Burnett, commander of the Brownsville American Legion post, announced today he was strongly opposed to ex-service men conducting a "bonus march" to Washington. So far as he knew, no veterans from the Rio Grande Valley had joined in the proposed march.

Fort Worth Contingent
FORT WORTH, June 2.—(AP)—
More than 60 World War veterans believed on their way to Washington today with the bonus expedition that set forth last night while another contingent was being organized to follow.

Tax Protest

lution calling attention of congress and delegates to the national political conventions of both major parties here this month to the growth of the tax burden.

The Chicago Association of Commerce, sponsor of the meeting, estimated the cost of the government has risen out of all proportion to the national income from $2,000,000,000 in 1912 to $12-000,000,000 in 1931.
The national income in 1912, association spokesmen said, was $32,000,000 and in 1931 it totaled $54,000,000,000, the proportion of the tax bill to income being only 6.1 per cent in 1912 and 22.2 per cent in 1931.

The delegates who crowded into a loop hotel this morning to hear George W. Rossiter, president of the Chicago association, open the initial session, were authorized to act for thousands of taxpayers
"back home" in states ranging from New York to California and from Wyoming to Florida.

They came from about 400 cities and represented chambers of commerce, agricultural associations, business and industrial enterprises. There were leaders in various campaigns for curtailment of government expenditures.

Tax Reduction Advocated DALLAS, June 2.—(AP)—A sharp reduction in taxes was advocated here last night by C. A. Frakes of Port Arthur, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor.

He also indorsed an old age pension, declaring if he were elected he would seek passage of a pension bill voted last year by Gov. R. S. Sterling.
"I think the people are dissatisfied with the kind of governors they have had in recent years," he said.
Frakes planned another address here tonight.

CROP LOANS BILL

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—
The senate today passed a bill to the house a bill providing that loans may be made by the Reconstruction corporation to farmers for making crops which are not actually produced before the end of 1932.

Senator Black (D., Ala.) its author, explained that under the agriculture department's interpretation of the law, which provides $50,000,000 for "crop production" during 1932, loans have been refused to growers of strawberries which are not ready for picking after Jan. 1, 1932.

The Black measure would permit loans for crop planting and cultivation as well as production.
At the request of Senator Jones (R., Wash.) it was made to apply to preparation for crops to be produced in "the summer following."

train when it was halted at the

LONDON, June 2.—(AP)—There was evidence today that British official circles were inclined to encourage the possibility that the United States government would participate in the second half of the Lausanne debts and economic conference this month instead of insisting on a separate meeting in London to consider remedies for the world's economic ills.

Responsible persons pointed out that there is a sharp line of demarcation between the preparations phase of the Lausanne program and that section of it which deals with world economic conditions.

Since the ranking statesmen of the countries chiefly concerned will be gathered at Lausanne, and since the imperial conference in Ottawa and other international meetings pending are likely to make an other London conference inconvenient, there is strong hope in London that the American government will see fit to announce its participation at Lausanne.

There was a report today that the United States would be willing to do this but neither the foreign office nor the American embassy had any confirmation of it and in other authoritative quarters it was strongly doubted.

The conference was that the next step was up to America, perhaps in the form of an answer to remarks in parliament yesterday by Sir John Simon, to foreign minister, who said that the possibility of American participation had not yet been ruled out.

U. S. May Participate
WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—
If the Lausanne conference of June 16 holds an adjourned meeting at London for the purpose of discussing plans for the betterment of world economic conditions, the United States is willing to attend, it was disclosed today at the state department.

The Washington government has refused repeatedly to go to Lausanne because it feels the conference is primarily for discussion of reparations war debts.
The United States and Great Britain are in complete agreement about the holding of a world economic conference in London and this government will attend at any time such a conference can be arranged.

Sterling Filed Application For Name On Ticket

HOUSTON, June 2.—(AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling today filed application to have his name placed on the democratic ticket for reelection.
In the application, filed with W. O. Huggins, state chairman of the democratic state executive committee, Mr. Sterling listed his occupation as "governor of Texas" and his home as La Porte and not Houston as formerly.
He took the pledge to support party nominees required of all candidates.

Robber Suicide

ran out a side door of the bank and into a store. Hair started after him, and then changed his mind and ran to the car he had parked in front of the bank. He hurriedly drove out of town having for the ranch country to the south.

Sheriff Milt Yater, a deputy,
Morris Zimmerman, and two others took up the chase within five minutes. After a ten-minute race they saw the fugitive turn into a fenced pasture, stopping to fasten the gate behind him.
The sheriff drove through the gate without pausing to open it, and drew alongside Hair, who stopped the car he was in.

The pursuers said he looked at-tively at them and drew the pistol from side pocket. Before they realized what he intended, there were shots and Hair fell dead.

Hair was the son of a retired banker who had lived in the Big Spring district since pioneer days.
Officers said Hair had been unemployed for several months. He formerly was employed as a truck driver for an oil company. He had lived in Big Spring practically all of his life.

Justice of the peace Adam Konz said he would return a verdict of suicide after conducting an inquest.

Arkansas Bank Is Robbed Thursday

TEXARKANA, Ark., June 2.— (AP)—The Bank of Horatio, Ark., was robbed of between $3,000 and $4,000 at noon today by two young men. Horatio is about 80 miles north of Texarkana.

The robbers forced J. M. James, cashier, and Mrs. Masie Gallagher, assistant, to lie on the floor while they were collecting the money.
They escaped in the general direction of Texarkana. Officers in Northeast Texas were warned to be on the lookout for them. A pse of pursuing officers left Horatio about 80 minutes after the robbers fled.

HOLLYWOOD MAKE-UP

Hollywood Facials
Since Miss Forbes has been visiting Hollywood many curious readers have been begging her to tell them whether Hollywood women use much make-up. For answer, and some practical hints, are in today's paper.

Since I have been here—in Hollywood I have had a lot of questions from readers about how the women in Hollywood make up, and whether they use much cosmetic on their faces. They do, of course, though no more—well, not much more—than in New York or Chicago, or almost any large city. My friend has lived here for some time, and she tells me that there is not nearly as much day-time make-up as there used to be. But that is true of other big cities. I suppose you see a lot of paint in cities because all women imitate one another. In a small village, one very much painted girl will be so prominent that the others will be afraid to follow her example. But here everyone makes up; the woman who does not is the exception. But at least they are clever about make-up.

Do you know how to improve your face with make-up? If your face is too round, place the rouge on your cheeks fairly near the nose. This narrows the face. If the nose is too wide, place the rouge far out toward the ears. If your nose is too short, use whitish powder under it; this gives an effect of length. If it is too long, use a fairly dark powder just above the tip of the nose. This seems to shorten it. If the nose is too small generally, use powder several shades lighter on it for this brings it out more prominently.

Use no eye shadow in the daytime, ever. At night, the barest shading from the center of the upper lid, fading out about an inch beyond the corner of the eye. Powder first, before using color, and powder over the color. Use eyelash mascara last of all, to cover up the powder that may stick on the lashes. If you use none of these things, brush the powder from your lashes, or else use your fingers with your fingers, first putting the least bit of vaseline on them. This gives gloss and thickness.

M. A. F.—It would be impossible to print the entire "Eighteen-Day Hollywood Diet" at this time, but you may have it if you forward a self-addressed, stamped envelope in which to mail it to you.

Mrs. B. D.—As camphor is very drying, and it is sometimes used to help out in drying up fatty tissue directly under the skin—to that extent there is reduction. A person who is very much overweight will do much better to aim for a complete reduction all over the body, and do it through changing the diet to foods less fattening than those that have been taken previously.

D. W.—As your figure is changing, your bust will not appear to be too full after a little while. You have developed a little one way than another, but there will be the usual changes all over your body that will have the effect of making your bust appear smaller and in proportion to other developments.

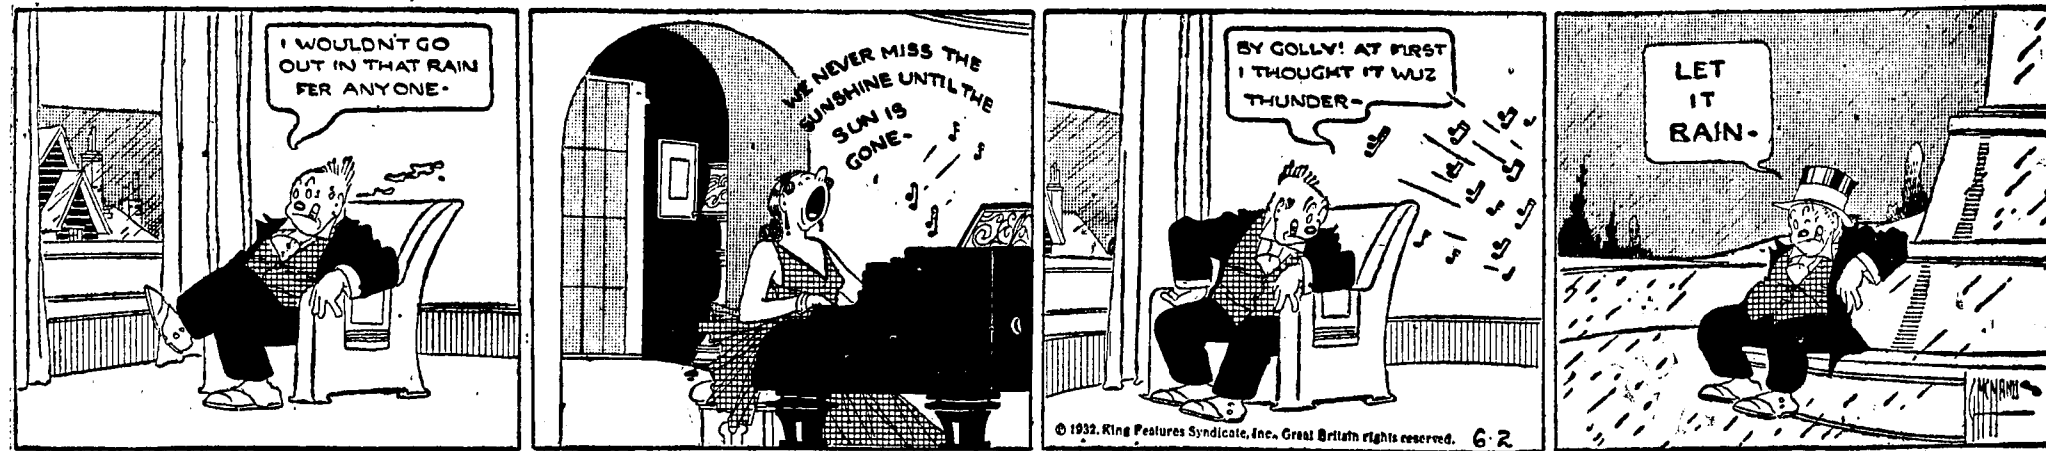

Mrs. B. J.—Any mild fine soap will do for shampooing gray hair. Be sure to rinse all the soap from the hair afterward.

SUGGESTIONS FOR STABILIZING STOCK MARKET STUDIED

RECENT TOPPLING BONDS AND STOCKS BRINGS EF- FORT OF STABILIZATION

NEW YORK, June 2.—(AP)—Out of the shambles of recent toppling bond and stock market prices have emerged two suggestions for stabilizing securities markets on which leaders of Wall Street finance are now working. Both proposals envisage an effort to arrest liquidation which, while largely a product of selling markets and representing the closing out of bank loans, has forced prices still lower although selling has at no time been particularly heavy.

The ideas center about (1) a plan to form a stabilization corporation which would buy bonds in an effort to support present price levels and (2) a plan to set up arbitrary loan values on stocks, backed by bank deposits or praisals of the intrinsic value of such securities regardless of market prices.

The proposed bond price stabilization corporation would be formed for the larger Wall Street banks. It would marshal available bank funds for purchase of bonds. Whenever the bond market turned especially weak, it would place orders for the loaning value of stocks, so far as banks are concerned. As a result, the banks would not be compelled to dump collateral loans overboard whenever the ticker showed a decline in the value of Wall Street's old line bankers look on it with some disfavor because of their repugnance at the suggestion of pegging any values or prices.

Farmer Nine Annexed Two Games Over Club Of Navarro Recently

The Farmer Independent baseball club turned in a couple of victories over the strong Navarro club, winning 3-2 in ten innings Monday and 7-4 Saturday.

Both clubs played excellent baseball in Monday's session and the contest with McDonald getting the better of Muckelrith in a pitchers' duel. Saturday's contest was called at the end of the sixth inning due to rain.

Farmer has established an enviable record on the diamond this season, having won sixteen, lost three and tied one.

Navarro will meet Farmer Sunday at Farmer. Farmer has won two games and lost one to Navarro.

SPORT NOTE

Beaumont Exporters who have been burning up the Texas league night, but maintained their six and one-half game margin when Dallas and Houston both lost.

Home run hitters Wednesday included Fox, Philadelphia Athletics; Cochrane, Philadelphia Athletics; Bishop, Philadelphia Athletics; Cramer, Philadelphia Athletics; Ruffing, New York Yankees; Klein, Philadelphia Phillies; Terry, New York Giants, Ott, New York Giants.

Carroll, Galveston pitcher, should feel pretty chummy today as he let the Beaumont Exporters down with four hits Wednesday night, Galveston winning 5-0. Beaumont had won fifteen games in a row.

Philadelphia Athletics took a long step toward regaining the leadership in the American league circles by drubbing the league-leading New York Yankees in double-header Wednesday. The first game went sixteen innings. The Athletics won the first 8-7, and the second, 7-6.

Buzz Arlett, Baltimore Oriole outfielder, equalled the world's record of the major leagues Wednesday by hammering out four home runs. This feat has not been equaled in the major leagues since 1906.

However, Clark, Corsicana catcher in 1902 in the Texas league, hit eight home runs, the real world's record as far as the writer can ascertain—in other words, Arlett gets a lot of publicity over the country for halving the record established by a Corsicana player thirty years ago.

Qualifying rounds in the Club tournament of the Country Club will end Saturday night. This tournament is scheduled to be finished in short order—the finals being carded for Tuesday, June 14. The tournament committee is to be congratulated upon its decision to have the matches played in a hurry as in that manner the tournament will be able to drag along, and interest will be heightened considerably.

Both sides will be able to play their matches when they are scheduled, defaults will be taken.

A snappy tournament is interesting to the players and others if it is conducted as per schedule, but a tourney that is carried along two or three weeks ceases to be interesting.

Dizzy Dean, former Houston hurler, who was the star of the Texas league, but who has had hard luck and has not been very effective with the St. Louis Cardinals, turned up in Chicago last week with five hits and the Cards won 1-0. Rain stopped the game in the eighth stanza and cheated Martin and Delker out of home runs as the game reverted back to the seventh inning, when Dean was called before the eighth was completed.

Fish fans will get a treat at the Nat Thursday night. An exciting game has been arranged by Promoter Jim Williams.

RICHLAND, June 2.—(Spl.)—Bondurant hit a triple in the fifth inning and two men on base and later scored to give the Richland club a 4-3 decision over the Rice club here Tuesday afternoon in a close melee.

Richland will be host to the Waco Packers Sunday, June 12.

REPUBLICAN LEADER CLARES PRO PLANK TO BE SATISFACTORY SPECULATION IS AT FEVER EAT AFTER DECLARATION OF POSTMASTER GENERAL

(By Associated Press)
Speculation in Washington over the Republican convention's position stand was at fever heat today as observers mulled over the fact that the plank would be satisfactory all around.
That this statement coincided with the issuance by the war council of the dry forces a warning that any party's move in a direction would be met with a determined active opposition, was a meeting of Illinois' democratic delegates in Springfield today was watched for indications of how much aid Franklin D. Roosevelt could expect from favorably disposed delegates. Though ostensibly for other purposes, the important question at this meet was agreement on convention procedure after the delegation has done its duty of nominating a candidate. Roosevelt's state's candidate, Pro-Roosevelt managers are well-known for their claims now to anticipate a landslide for the Republican party. They are counting on favorable delegations to swing before even the first ballot is finished.

Believes Republicans Plan Pro Solution

NEW YORK, June 2.—(AP)—In a statement issued by Senator J. Hamilton Smith, chairman of the allied forces for prohibition, Dr. Daniel A. Polig predicted today that the republican party would go farther than the plank in a plank for the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of liquor.
He thought the republican party would adopt a plank calling for submission of a proposition to repeal the prohibition law and for the enforcement of law and for loyalty to the constitution would be entirely inadequate, he said.
"I can see where it would be all right for both parties to write a plank for both parties platforms—a plank for once, loyal to the constitution and representative government, fair to both sides and offering to each full opportunity to win merit."

SEEK TO PROTECT IMPERIAL VALLEY FROM FLOOD WATER

YUMA, Ariz., June 2.—(AP)—With the peak of the Colorado river flood due to reach here tomorrow night or early Saturday, hundreds of men worked today strengthening levees throughout the Imperial valley.
The river, now several miles in width, has reached the levees but so far there has been no seepage, irrigation district officials said. The river today was rising at the north of here. Although the river managed to break through two places in the levees near Blythe, slight damage was done before men were able to turn the waters back to the river bed. Two freckled-faced boys, Freddy Gore and William Hayes, were killed as the heroes of the Blythe levee break. The two youths chased a runaway cow, discovered the hole in the levee and immediately notified their families. Hundreds of men were sent to the scene and their work saved 20,000 acres of farm land from inundation.

Mayor Walker

ceived large fees from the city for treating injured employees but denied splitting city fees, except with one doctor. With this doctor, he said, he had a joint bank account, in which both deposited, and the money was split "fifty-fifty."
He said it was just a coincidence that payments by another doctor to him were exactly half of city fees received by that doctor.
No more public hearings until fall are expected in the $750,000 investigation of the city, which has been conducted by a legislative committee with Seabury as counsel. Sensational disclosures have marked the hearings. One of them leading to the removal of Sheriff Thomas M. Farley for failing to explain swollen bank accounts.
While Mayor Walker was on the witness stand he was called on to answer among other things, implications that he had accepted $25,000 in bonds from a banker who was interested in changes in city regulation of taxicab rates, and that an agent for a bus company for which he signed a franchise bought him a $10,000 letter of credit.
The mayor said the $25,000 came from a pool in which he put no money, but was ready to stand any loss, and that the $10,000 was advanced by him and members of his traveling party, not by the bus man.

THREE TYPES AID URGED BY MAYORS DETROIT MEETING

NEW YORK CHIEF EXECUTIVE SPENDS BUSY DAY WITH MANY INTERESTS

DETROIT, June 2.—(AP)—A program calling for federal aid of three types today bore the endorsement of some thirty mayors of major cities and preparations were going forward to present the demands to congress and to President Hoover.

The program grew out of a conference of mayors held here yesterday on invitation of Mayor Frank Murphy. Another result of the gathering was a decision to form a permanent organization for the purpose of discussing common problems and presenting a united front.

The 32 mayors in the conference were unanimous in favoring a permanent organization and in asking that the reconstruction finance corporation act be amended to permit the corporation to extend aid to municipalities.

With only one dissenting vote on each proposal, the mayors also adopted resolutions favoring direct federal unemployment relief, $5,000,000,000 for public works as a further aid to the jobs.

Seven mayors will present the program in Washington, the group being headed by Mayor Murphy and Mayor James M. Curley of Boston.
Murphy was asked to appoint a committee to work out plans for the permanent organization. A suggestion of Mayor T. S. Wamsley of New Orleans that the membership be limited to 75,000 or more population was referred to this committee, as were other suggestions. Mayor James J. Walker of New York disagreed with the New Orleans mayor, declaring smaller cities should be represented.

Mayor Walker was active in the discussion favorable to direct unemployment relief from federal funds. The other mayors for the most part joined him and Mayor Murphy in this stand, although outspoken opposition came from George D. Begole of Denver and R. B. Marvin of Syracuse, N. Y.

Walker spent a busy day, not only because he was one of the most active members of the conference but also because of events in New York which demanded his attention.
Samuel Seabury, counsel for the Hofstadter legislative committee, during the day charged that Walker, because he owned bonds of the Reliance Bronze & Steel Company, which received a city contract, had committed a violation.

J. E. BOOG-SCOTT

COLEMAN, June 2.—(Spl.)—J. E. Boog-Scott of Coleman has announced his candidacy for congressman-at-large, Place No. 3, stating that he would make the race on his record as a member of the agricultural experiment station board of Texas and as chairman of the Texas Livestock sanitary board for five years.

He says that he is opposed to government extravagance and pork barrel politics and in a general lowering of tariff schedules, with protection of raw material where the manufactured product is protected.

tion which constituted grounds for removal from office. Walker and members of his party obtained a transcript of the testimony by telephone from New York and the mayor issued a vigorous denial in which he took Seabury sharply to task, accusing him of "unfairness." He declared the committee's counsel "well knew" that the bonds "came into my possession without any knowledge on my part of the company's business." The contract awarded to the company, he said, was the result of a low bid.

TIME GRADUALLY ERASING HORROR OF KIDNAPING AND MURDER OF LINDY JUNIOR

BY DALE HARRISON

HOPEWELL, N. J., June 2.—(AP)—Hopewell, the village lifted to world notice by an amazing crime, is a world again.

The gayly-uniformed troopers who flashed up and down the Jersey highways and who tramped the hills for clues that seemed always elusive, have gone; all but a few.

The Lindberghs—the slim, hatless Colonel Charles, and petite, erect Anne Morrow Lindbergh, his wife—also, have gone. These days of magnificent beauty and tranquility in the Sourland hills; but nature's green fades in hearts banded in black.

The colonel, robbed by a savage who would murder a baby, is seeking solace in science. At the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, New York, a special laboratory has been set aside for his exclusive use. None will say what he is doing there.

Mrs. Lindbergh seeks solace at the Englewood house of her mother-in-law. In the knowledge that summer is to bring another baby, other characters in the tragedy of Hopewell's hills go their separate ways, little noticed. All save John Hughes Curtis, who invented a horrible hoax and who is in jail, soon to be called to answer for it.

Dr. John F. Condon, to whose routine, school teacher life adventure came at the age of 72, continues his hunt and his hope. This is "Jasie," who authored mysterious advertisements in the newspapers, who went at night to a graveyard and who paid $50,000 of Colonel Lindbergh's money for the return alive of a baby dead. Spry for his years, he returned today to his study of police pictures of rogues.

At Norfolk, Va., the Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock, who barely a month ago, with Curtis, talked importantly of "contacts" with the "kidnappers," is silent.

Slowly, reluctantly, the tragic sensation of a generation loses itself as time marches on. People forget quickly. Perhaps it is well they do.

Ransom Payment Probe Is Lagging

NEW YORK, June 2.—(AP)—The Bronx county grand jury investigating the futile payment of $50,000 ransom for the return of the Lindbergh baby apparently ran out of leads today.

Reconvened to inquire further into the handling of the ransom money by Dr. John F. Condon, the Jafise of the kidnap case, to a supposed representative of the Lindberghs, the grand jury heard several witnesses and planned to adjourn subject to call.

Morris Rosner, who had testified at a previous session of the grand jury, was one of the witnesses called before the investigating body today.

Salvatore Spitalo, who with Irving Bitz, was selected by Col. Lindbergh to negotiate for the return of the child, also was before the grand jury today.

Meanwhile Dr. Condon had gone to Philadelphia to examine rogues in the gallery pictures in his search for
